and confusing regulatory terms that must be used to describe the 3.6 billion metric tons of dangerous chemicals and products transported around the world each year by air, land, and water. In fact, the use of this jargon, mandated by many national and international authorities like the United Nations, makes regulatory compliance and safe transportation extremely uncertain. Existing references provide little help.
Even the regulations supply only a limited number of descriptions of the terms. Glossary for the Worldwide Transportation of Dangerous worldwide transportation of hazardous materials. Written by a leading environmental and transportation consultant and educator, it is the principal reference for all shippers and transporters involved in the identification of dangerous goods and hazardous materials - the basis of all subsequent transportation requirements.

As If Something Happened Mar 20 2020 A thrilling YA novel that proves "some people are anaphylactic to each other." "...a humorously told and entertaining story that will appeal to YA fans and readers who enjoy young urban fantasy. The story is told in an absorbing first-person narrative and the exciting voice of the protagonist is hard to resist. The plot took me on a path I never anticipated... As If Something Happened is told by a master storyteller and features a young female protagonist who is richly developed and whose sense of humor is exceptionally depicted in the story." —Jose Cornelio for Readers' Favorite Fourteen-year-old, Laura "Elmur" Murphy figures that her genetic makeup has disadvantaged her. When she was five and wanted to be the pretty Indian Princess in the school play, she was given the part of a cowboy named Rag-time Joe instead. So, on the day freshmen from selected high schools throughout the world are injected with someone else's genes as part of "Stepping Away from I'ness," Elmur decides she wants to see the world from someone else's point of view. But after a sick twist of fate, she finds herself on the run with a group of other student misfits. In a real-life video game of strength and wits, Elmur must become the hero of her own story or risk becoming someone she doesn't recognize.

Summer Intrigue May 22 2020 Tyler Montague is, by anyone's estimation, successful: he's a young, handsome, and wealthy Wall Street investment banker living in Manhattan with his beautiful and ambitious girlfriend. So why is he so restless, so deeply discontented? When he finally admits that he's homesick for his birthplace-the mountains, the lake, and the serenity of southeastern Tennessee-Ty abandons his career, his girlfriend, and the frenzied atmosphere of New York and heads home. In Tennessee, Ty rejoins his mother to manage the family marina and soon encounters his first love, the high school sweetheart he left behind. But the tranquility and contentment he craves is soon shattered. A close friend becomes one of the victims in a series of brutal murders. Suspecting that the bullet may well have been meant for him and determined to clear his family's business of any involvement in the ongoing violence, Ty is compelled to help track the perpetrator of the heinous crimes. As the sniper continues to create mayhem in the community, using the mountain's natural contours to evade capture, Ty must summon his skill, courage, and knowledge of the terrain to stop the killer, save his family's reputation, and right the wrongs that are plaguing his own heart.
