Retour de Mikhaïl Tchigorine face à Wilhelm Steinitz, 3 ans après leur premier match. Murit par l'expérience du match de 1889, Tchigorine est devenu beaucoup plus incisif et dangereux alors que Steinitz, âge de 55 ans (contre 41 pour Tchigorine) est devenu beaucoup plus prudent. Le début du match annonce immédiatement les intentions de Tchigorine, créer des déséquilibres dans les positions, et obtenir l'initiative à n'importe quel prix. Ce qui lui réussit, car à la moitié du match il prend une avance de deux points sur son adversaire. Mais Steinitz âgé, reste quand même Steinitz. Son sens stratégique, les modifications de la structure, et son sens tactique sont toujours présents pour dominer et remporter des parties. C'est dans la seconde moitié du match que Steinitz va revenir au score, sans doute à cause de la fatigue ou de la pression que subit le challenger, mais surtout grâce à la ténacité du champion du monde. L'opposition des styles est toujours présente, et les deux joueurs, comme pour leur premier match, vont améliorer leurs ouvertures, proposer des idées nouvelles, rendant ce match passionnant et offrant une bonne base d'apprentissage sur diverses positions. The definitive international history of one of the world's most successful rally cars. Kennedy didn't just start a frantic effort to find this assassins. JFK's murder also launched a flurry of covert actions by officials like Robert F. Kennedy, Lyndon Johnson, and Richard Helms to hide the fact that the United States was on the brink of invading Cuba as part of a JFK-authorized coup only ten days away. The plan's exposure could have cost the life of JFK's coup leader, Cuban Army Commander Juan Almeida, and led to a nuclear confrontation with the Soviets, just a year after the Cuban Missile Crisis. But the cover-ups by these top officials also had the tragic effect of preventing a full investigation of JFK's assassination, spawning a legacy of secrecy that would impact Presidents, Congress and U.S. foreign policy for the next forty-five years." "Legacy of Secrecy details the secret attempt of Robert F. Kennedy and his aides to expose his brother's killers, while protecting Commander Almeida. It shows how RFK continued his war against the Mafia by focusing increased attention on the Mafia bosses behind JFK's assassination, until his own murder. RFK's associates continued his quest, almost exposing the truth several times. But like a deadly, high-stakes chess game - at the height of the Cold War - they were blocked each time by three Mafia chiefs and a handful of CIA operatives. Legacy details each step taken by mob bosses Carlos Marcello, Santo Trafficante, and Johnny Rosselli to hide their involvement in JFK's murder, and the tragic results that followed. The long shadow of secrecy surrounding both JFK's murder and the coup plan set the stage for the murder of Martin Luther King, ultimately driving two Presidents from office, and bringing about the murders of five Congressional witnesses in the mid-1970s."--BOOK JACKET.
