Brethren of Tavish, A Vampire to Watch Over Me Sep 19 2022 VAMPIRE COVEN BOOK 1: THE BRETHERN OF TAVISH Ice and snow litter the frozen earth in the not-so-distant future. Survival is for those adept at carving out homes within the polar ice caps. Mercy is the last child of a martyr family. The line must die out—the madness must stop. All have been forbidden to produce offspring by their leader, Mercy's father. Sex and conception is a sin punishable by death. A dark evil is spreading across the land. Vampires, in a desperate bid for self-preservation are searching each iceberg, cave and cavern for their highly prized food source. Of particular interest are women of childbearing years. With Tavish's first taste of her blood comes the first onslaught of Mercy's tears. Rules of survival are explained. Complete submission, it is law. Fealty to her Master, it is law. Females must be bred. It is law. Those that cannot breed are given over to the vampires and Anivamps. It is certain death. Tavish will soon come to realize exactly how far he will go for a little Mercy. VAMPIRE COVEN BOOK 2: A VAMPIRE TO WATCH OVER ME Trapped in a lonely world of ice and snow, Honor vows to break free of the restraining heartache her ice dwelling leader has placed their clan under. It's a world of sadness; no touching, no kind words—love is a hateful, profane four letter word and is against the law. Emotion is as frozen as the icy ground Honor walks. Laken is a sixteen thousand year old vampire, sired to The Brethren of Tavish. When the heated beauty all but falls into his lap, Laken feels his heart is transported back in time before he was turned. The lookalike to his favored love tumbles from her frozen furs. The angry little vixen won't be tamed. Laken has been taught from birth there is nothing more important than honor. In order to save both her, and himself, he must break a law. The last time he broke a law the consequence was death to his timid, beautiful mate-to-be. The blow was devastating. Now Laken must decide just how far he will go for his Honor. VAMPIRE COVEN BOOK 3: A VAMPIRE'S EMBRACE Tormented by a sea of betraying women over his thousands of years, Rhett wants no woman he finds. The woman he saves in the iceberg home can be handed to another, after he is done playing with her. Until Rhett realizes the woman isn't alone. All she will have is a vampire's embrace to keep her from slipping into despair.

The Vamp for Me Oct 16 2019 Sunshine is Overrated Life with vamps is never easy. Abernathy Meyers is already mated to a vamp, Zebulon. It's just too bad that Zebulon doesn't give a darn about him. Abbie's stuck with the man for eternity-or until they die. Some days, Abbie thinks that can't happen soon enough. He's tired of being treated badly, yet he doesn't really want to make his earthly exit yet. Because he's longed for another man-another vampire-for years. Forbidden love-is anything more compelling, or more heart-breaking? There's a twisted past, a hidden story linking Abbie, Zebulon and the coven leader, Claude. Claude lives with a fear of turning to dust at any moment. It isn't reasonable, but he can't shake it. He's let his own fears impede his potential happiness, and instead he puts the needs of his coven first, ignoring his own. But if he's deliberately blind to one particular human's needs because that human is a mate to another vampire, then is Claude truly leading to the best of his ability? It's a tough question for him to answer and soon, he'll have to make a choice that will affect him and Abbie, forever. Don't Drink the Holy Water Being left for dead sure has a way of changing a man. He'd taken on the responsibility of raising his younger siblings after their parents died, had done so out of love, but he was a young man and he just wanted a chance to live like one for a few hours. It almost cost him his life. It certainly meant his life was changed forever, and along with his life, the lives of his siblings. They were all exposed to a secret world they'd never known existed. Vampires. Human children living alongside vampires...seemed unusual. Claude, the coven leader who saved West and his brothers and sisters, doesn't have accommodations for kids. He finds one coven in the country that does, and sets about making a home there for West and his family. Before he sends West away, West meets an intriguing man, Axel, whom he encounters again months later. The attraction between them is strong, but there is more to consider than just how sexy Axel is. of money for it. Our regular heroes Elina, Grigore, Kitchi, Kai, and Silver Fox embarked on the same journey to free the human clones. Aella discovered that she had the ability to control, generate, and absorb electric fields. Alair also discovered that he had the ability to astral project anywhere. Once Upon a Vampire Nov 16 2019 Bestselling author Hannah Miller knows how to steam up the pages and make her fans swoon over her vampire heroes. But in real life, things are a lot less dramatic. Haunted by a terrible night in her past, she's become almost a recluse, holed up in her apartment, exploring the world through fiction. Keeping real life locked outside. Until one night-when Logan Valcourt walks into her book signing-accusing Hannah of being a fraud. Telling her it's obvious she knows nothing of real vampires...or real men for that matter. He's dark, brooding and looks disturbingly like the vampire hero of her books. And when he makes a bet with her-to prove vampires are real-she finds herself unable to say no. Now she's thrust into a world straight off the pages of a bestselling book. Of blood and vampires. Betrayal and murder. It's completely terrifying-yet completely intoxicating, all at the same time. Especially when she sees the look growing in Logan's eyes. A look of dark desire, that's becoming all too real. Will Hannah ever be able to return to the pages of her old life? Or will she begin a brand new chapter...once upon a vampire? This is the first book in a brand new Blood Coven Vampires crossover series and will feature familiar faces joining brand new characters.
