One of the most interesting topics in the Bible is the doctrine of the Second Coming of Christ. God has not left us in the dark concerning the details of Christ's future coming, but has given us several clear prophetic signs to watch for. Signs of the Second Coming of Jesus Christ and the End of the World looks at key events the Bible says will lead to the glorious return of the Lord Jesus at the end of the age. If you ever wondered why the world is the way it is, and where it is headed, then you need to read this book! Whether you are a Christian or not, this revealing work will give you the vital information you need to prepare for what may come in the near future, and for eternity itself. (this book gives much historical information, compares worldviews, and provides several charts for a better understanding of historical developments). What will become of those who are left behind? This is a sad question, but it is eagerly asked by many.... It may readily be supposed that the taking away of loved ones at the Rapture will cause many of those left behind to seek the Lord, but as the Holy Spirit goes back with the Church, and for the time being ceases His Office Work of Regeneration, who is to convert those who are left? -from The Second Coming of Christ The Reverend Clarence Larkin was one of the most widely influential thinkers on end-times prophecies of the early twentieth century, and his writings remain vital to appreciating the apocalyptic Christian thought that today enjoys widespread popularity. This 1918 work outlines exactly what the Bible predicts for the end of mankind's reign on Earth, and the return of the Christian savior, with a special emphasis on who is to be saved, and why. Numerous charts and illustrations depict the "Judgment Seat of Christ," "The Stages of the Second Coming," the "Failure of Man," and more. Also available from Cosimo Classics: Larkin's The Spirit World, Rightly Dividing the Word, and The Book of Revelation. American Baptist pastor and author CLARENCE LARKIN (1850-1924) was born in Pennsylvania, and later set up his ministry there. He wrote extensively and popularly on a wide range of Biblical and theological matters. As we examine the scriptures in light of the events we see around us, we see the final pieces of the puzzle coming together for Christ's imminent return. And, behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give to every man according as his work shall be. -Revelation 22:12 KJV Are you prepared for the return of Jesus Christ? People have talked about it, read, wrote, sung, joked, and made movies about it. In March 2006, author Sarah

A. Jones heard a voice in her dream say to her, "Let your testimony be: 'Jesus Christ is Coming!' The people must be told so that they can be prepared upon His arrival." Therefore she has written this book about His return; what we can do according to God's word to be prepared for this inevitable event; and what will happen to those who are not prepared. A MUST READ! I pray that this book will bless you, enlighten, and inspire you to seek God, and draw closer to Him in hope that you will be prepared for Jesus' arrival. Allow God to speak to your heart as you read with expectation to hear and receive from Him. You will be amazed, and your life will never be the same. We guarantee it! Time is running out. Believe it or not; prepared or not; Jesus Christ is coming! For He is coming, for He is coming to judge the earth. He shall judge the world with righteousness, and the peoples with His truth. -Psalm 96:13 NJKV

The purpose of doing this study is to focus on the coming of Christ, and to better prepare us for His coming. The early Christians in the first century would often talk of His coming and encourage one another by looking forward to the day when Christ would return. If that was so for centuries ago, how much more should we be anticipating His coming in the days in which we live? Now more than ever, it is important that we remember often to lift up our heads and say, "Come Lord Jesus!"

The second coming of Jesus Christ is the core of the biblical worldview, the climax of the biblical message, the cornerstone of biblical theology, and the centrepiece of authentic biblical faith for the twenty-first century.

At the heart of this bold opening statement by Stephen Motyer is the conviction that Jesus Christ is the "centre" of the Scriptures, even though he only appears at the end. For the New Testament writers, Jesus Christ revolutionized their understanding of the Scriptures and gave them a new centre around which to interpret the work of God in the world – and the climax of that work is the "second coming" of that same Jesus Christ. Jesus himself used the language of the Scriptures to promise his "coming again", the "coming of the Son of Man". Hence we need the whole of Scripture to understand what the second coming means for us today. The fact that the Bible ends with the prayer "Come, Lord Jesus!" (Revelation 22:20) is deeply appropriate. The second coming is the "end" of the biblical message, its "omega point", its grand finale, the denouement when all the players in the drama of earth history, both human and angelic, are gathered in the drawing room to hear the Master unpack the plot and give the verdict. Motyer's comprehensive, stimulating study is divided into two parts. Part One, "The biblical frame", examines three Old Testament passages and lays the foundation for Part Two, "New Testament hopes and visions", which explores a series of key texts. He focuses on the second coming, rather than on millennialism or the "end times", in order to provide the fundamental biblical theology that must underlie our whole sense of God's future for his world. "Aims to instill in readers a desire for and love of the second coming of the Lord Jesus Christ and shows how Christians should live as they await his return"--

Many times when we hear about eschatology, our minds rush to think about dates, numbers, the antichrist, one world governments, global persecutions and suffering. However, eschatology is all about 'The Coming of Christ,' which is also referred to in the scriptures as 'The Revelation of Jesus Christ.' The visions of the beasts, the dragon, the antichrist, the prostitutes, the seals, the trumpets and the wrath of God will never truly make sense until you see how Jesus Christ is revealed through them. In the Lord's prayer, Jesus Christ reveals seven attributes of God the Father which we must address in prayer. He mentions His name, His kingdom, His will, His bread of provision, His justice concerning sin, His deliverance from evil and His glory. The book of revelation is divided into seven sets of visions in which these same seven attributes are revealed in Christ Jesus the Son of God. This book is a very detailed and comprehensive look at God's vision and destiny for his creation as revealed in Christ from Genesis to Revelation. All the interpretations between these covers are purely bible based. Nothing I share in here, is based on material read from other authors, but every revelation I share is based on revelations of scriptures that the Holy Spirit has given me through personal study. I believe there is a lot you will read in this book, which you will not find anywhere else. Together, we shall explore following topics in detail: Chapter 1 (What Is The Coming Of Christ) Chapter 2 (Six Marks Of The Coming Of Christ) Chapter 3 (Seven Revelations In The Book Of Revelation) Chapter 4 (Signs Of The Coming) Chapter 5 (Where Do The Raptured Saints Go) Chapter 6 (What Is The Day Of The Lord) Chapter 7 (Qualification For Rapture) Chapter 8 (Great White Throne Judgment) Chapter 9 (How To

Amen. Second Coming of Christ by Ernest Johnson America in Prophecy Rapture Signs of the Times Hatred America in Prophecy America is directly mentioned in prophecy contrary to modern Christian dogma. This is what you don't know America has the weaponry to boom boom the world back to Stone Age. The Christian Rapture will leave America powerless. America will rise, America will challenge, America will face Jehovah then America will bravely fight and die. Rapture The Rapture will leave dead bodies by the billions throughout the plain. Souls will be snatched up or caught up. This perspective is also contrary to Christian dogma (Tenets). Let's take a stroll through the sculptures and reevaluate this issue. This chapter is scripturally infested. Signs of the Times. Signs of the Times include: cold love, lawlessness, birth pangs, warring nations, Apostate Church and a demonic world, a world that is twisted, upside down and backwards. The Kingdom came and was established 2000 years ago. Now we are at the times of the end. Hatred. Hell itself has made its abode in each Soul. Hatred is second nature to us all. Hatred is Satan's dying love for us monkey humans. He also twistedly believes that God also hated us. Truly Hell is vibrations or hate will spark heaven's wrath and the earth will become the receptor of all hateful vibrations from hell, man and God. Faith is insane asylum of the galaxy. "And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, that where I am you may be also." John 14:3 ESV Jesus Christ was very clear: One day He will return and none of us knows when. Vocal fanatics claim to know the details of the Second Coming, causing many Christians to all but ignore the good news that Jesus is coming again. Yet God's own Word commands us to know the signs of the times, to remain watchful, and to be ready-whenver Christ comes. This book is a straightforward, in-depth exploration of the key biblical texts regarding the Second Coming; most notably, Christ's longest and most important eschatological message, the Olivet Discourse. As you study what the Word of God says about these matters, it will stir in your heart an earnest longing for Christ's return-as well as a certainty about how to live expectantly until He comes again. "Signs of the Coming Christ" is a consolidation of all biblical prophecy that is relevant to the current age. This scientific, analytical approach sheds new light on ancient scriptures. (Biblical Studies) Over 7,000 Scripture references confirming the truths expounded herein. A book for the classroom and the home. (Foreword by Charles C. Ryrie) This work presents a biblically based, reasoned examination of the second coming. Did you know that the exact year of Jesus' crucifixion was predicted over five hundred years before His birth? Did you know that a similar prophecy predicts the exact year of Jesus' return to earth? In fact, the timing of the Second Coming of Christ is foreshadowed in no less than eleven places in the scriptures. These timelines all point to the end of human history within this generation. Although the Bible teaches that "no one knows the day or hour when these things will happen," (Mark 13:32) it says nothing about not knowing the year. Faithful Christians most certainly "won't be surprised when the day of the Lord comes," (1 Thessalonians 5:4) rather, they will "see the day approaching." (Hebrews 10:25) This book reveals that the Glorious Day will occur within three and a half years of AD 2036. CHRIST HAS DIED! CHRIST IS RISEN! CHRIST WILL COME AGAIN! Father Brown reflects here not only on those annunciations of Jesus' forthcoming birth in the Gospels of Matthew and Luke, but also on the beautiful canticles, the Magnificat and the Benedictus, and on the origins of Jesus as given in the first words of the New Testament. Over the centuries, God has revealed to His prophets clues to the upcoming events of the end times. Such prophetic language often differs from other parts of Scripture, employing highly figurative details. God in His wisdom has imparted these clues to various prophets spanning centuries of time, civilizations and social levels, thus providing the modern-day reader a highly complex, yet complete prophetic puzzle pointing us forward to final days in earth's history. Therefore, a complete study is necessary to understanding Bible prophecy as the act of overlooking one prophet or vision will render an incomplete understanding. William Miller was a simple New York farmer when God called him to become one of the cornerstones of the great revival movement that eventually formed the foundation of the Seventh-day Adventist church. A self-proclaimed agnostic, Miller had little to do with God or the Bible for much of his adult life. However, as the Holy Spirit worked on his heart, Miller began an extensive study of the Scriptures where he found Christ as his personal friend and Saviour. Evidence From Scripture and History explores into the heart of many Bible prophecies both known and ambiguous. Backing up all claims with Scripture and references, Miller takes the reader on an exhaustive study of Bible prophecy in this modern-day reprinting of an early advent study.

For two thousand years, every generation has wondered whether or not they would live to see the Second Coming of Christ. But never before have the players of prophecy lined up for it all to be fulfilled in one generation. BOOK ONE: THE END-TIME BIBLE PROPHECIES is a comprehensive collection of end-time Scriptures. It is a treasury of the Biblical prophecies leading up to and surrounding the Great Tribulation, the Second Coming of Jesus Christ, and beyond. It is a manual for equipping the saints. No opinions are added - God does all the talking. To those interested in Bible prophecy this will be an indispensable resource for understanding the last days and read like a favorite book! Taking into consideration that such a large portion of Scripture is either prophecy or tied to it, prophecy must be a very important part of God's message to us. Therefore, the knowledge of these Scriptures should be very important to God's people. In the end-times it will be crucial! The information herein is based on the disciples coming to Jesus privately, saying, "Tell us, (1) when will these things be, and (2) what will be the sign of your coming, and (3) of the end of the age?" (Matthew 24:3) These questions refer to the end of an age, which was referred to in Matthew 24:1-2, 1 Jesus came out from the temple and was going away when his disciples came up to point out the temple buildings to him. 2 And he said to them, "Do you not see all these things? [the temple buildings] Truly I say to you, not one stone here will be left upon another, which will not be torn down." In Matthew 24:3-28, Jesus is referring to the end of the Jewish age, which was to culminate in 66-70 C.E., with the desolation and destruction of Jerusalem and its temple. The disciples' questions were based on a presumption the end of the temple to them, equaled the end of the age, encompassing Christ's return, the judgment of the wicked and the setting up of his kingdom. Verses 3-28 are Jesus answering their question. In his words, he does address what will lead up to the end of the Jewish age, but what about the end of wicked humankind and the ruler of the world, the age (era) of Satan, and his second coming, Jesus' kingdom, and his thousand year reign. We have to understand the end of the Jewish age as well, because all prophecy has a meaning to those who hear it, which will help us understand if it could be applicable to us. In conservative, evangelical, grammatical-historical interpretation, an author has only one referent for his words, as two referents would result in two meanings. Our position is that there is only one meaning of what an author meant by his words. This may sound complex now, but it will be unfolded more in later chapters, in a very easy to understand way. In chapters 1 and 2, we must address why Jesus is saying there would be an end of the Jewish age. In chapter 3, we will take a deep look at the signs that establish the great tribulation is closing in, and when is it time to flee. In chapter 4, we will go over the signs of the end of the Jewish age. In chapter 5, we will walk through the events leading up to the end of the Jewish age from 66 – 70 C.E. In chapter 6, we will cover the second coming of Jesus where the reader will get the answers as to whether verses 3-28 apply to his second coming. We will close out with chapter 7, and how we should understand the signs, and how we do not want to be led astray, just as Jesus warned even some of the chosen ones would be misled. We will also address what comes after the end.

The three leading millennial views -- postmillennialism, amillennialism, and premillennialism -- are presented in the context of their history, their theology, and their biblical interpretation. Dr. Walvoord presents postmillennialism first and then discusses amillennialism. However, the subject of premillennialism forms the main body of the work. The author introduces premillennialism with a survey of its historical background in the Old and New Testaments and in the history of the church. Its theological setting and methods of interpretation are discussed. A presentation of the character of the millennium concludes the volume. Some Christians do not understand the difference between the Rapture of the Church and the Second Coming of Jesus Christ. The Bible teaches that Jesus Christ will descend from heaven with a blast of a trumpet. All Christians on earth will be caught up into the clouds to meet Jesus and to be with Him throughout eternity. The Bible teaches that a 7-year period of time will occur where God will pour out His wrath on the unbelievers who have rejected the sacrifice of His Son Jesus Christ. This period of time is called the Tribulation. We believe that the Tribulation will occur immediately after the Rapture. We believe that the Second Coming of Christ will occur at the end of the Tribulation. When Jesus returns to earth, all Christians will return with Him. At that time a 1,000-year period of time called the Millennium will commence. During the Millennium, the earth will be in perfect peace. In this book we give a simple and easy-to-understand explanation of the Rapture, the Tribulation, the Second Coming of Christ and the Millennium.
