A collection of twenty four short mystery stories. When you have a few minutes to kill. Armchair sleuths can test their powers of deduction with 37 of the best quick-read whodunits in this sixth volume of the popular Five-Minute Mysteries series. Here's the idea. Readers take about five minutes to read a short mystery. Next, they must solve the question posed at the end by putting themselves in the shoes of the detective to examine the evidence and figure out who done it. All the clues they need are found somewhere in the story. A sampling of the mysteries in this volume: There are 50 identical trailers on the highway, and one has been stolen. What is it that makes one of the trailers suspect? Two lovers are found dead of carbon monoxide poisoning and a note indicates suicide. What makes the investigator believe this is a murder case? A family produces a new will. What makes the lawyer suspect it a forgery? Cases are rated easy, moderate and challenging. Some mysteries will unravel faster than a dime-store sweater while others will take longer to solve. Solutions for all, however, are revealed at the back of the book. Five-Minute Mysteries #6 is a treat for both puzzle aficionados and mystery fans, offering a rare opportunity to step into the shoes of law enforcement professionals. Includes fifteen detective puzzles, the unravelling of which requires you to develop your latent powers of observation and deduction. In words, charts, and diagrams, this work puts you at the crime scene and presents you with the facts established by the police. Every five minutes, another crime is committed. Can you Trap a murderer? Catch a thief? Expose a blackmailer? Spot a deception? Test your logic, your knowledge and your powers of perception with these baffling mysteries. All the clues are contained in each story - all you have to do is find them. Can you reconstruct the crimes and identify the culprits? Double Suicide on Midland Ridge; The bodies of two lovers are found in a car, a hose running from the exhaust pipe through the rear window. Obviously a suicide pact. Or was it? The Case of the Erring Arsonist; A workshop burns to the ground. The man who stands to gain from the blaze admits to starting it, but swears it was an accident. How do you know if he's telling the truth? The Case of the Thieving Welder; A stylish woman claims she knows who stole her diamonds. The detective knows better. Do you? These stumpers will sharpen your powers of observation. And if you can't wait to figure out whodunnit - the answers are in the back. More than 100,000 copies of One-Minute Mysteries and Brain Teasers and Return of the One-Minute Mysteries and Brain Teasers have been sold (combined), and now Sandy Silverthorne and John Warner offer an all-new collection of family-friendly lateral thinking puzzles. Each page includes an unusual scenario that ends with a question for readers to answer as well as a delightful cartoon that depicts a laughably incorrect assumption. To find the one satisfying answer for each puzzle, readers must throw out all preconceived notions and be open-minded, flexible, and creative. Increasingly revealing clues for each puzzle are included in the back of the book, as are the solutions. These riddles are challenging enough for adults yet appropriate for detectives of all ages. Individual readers, families, and groups can enjoy hours of fun solving them and learning to think outside the box. As I sat down to record my memoirs, old emotions came to the surface--both good and bad. I shared some of the bad with an acquaintance. He said, "That's tragic!" I thought about that later. I'm like a man who was born visually challenged. Although I'm not experiencing the same challenge, my experiences are the only ones I know. That's the only life I have known. It doesn't seem tragic to me. In fact, those tragic experiences have instilled in me perseverance and determination to win and a bond with others. Join me as you read the good and the bad. Do you see yourself in the story? Quick mysteries are presented for the reader to solve, with solutions printed upside down at end of each mystery. Award-winning author Sandy Silverthorne and John Warner's first collection of one-minute mysteries has sold more than 100,000 copies, and now the two offer more fun thinking puzzles for super-sleuths of all ages. It's an entertaining book for the whole family. Each one-page mystery is illustrated with a hilarious cartoon that presents an obvious (and obviously incorrect!) solution. Readers can turn to a page of clues, each one revealing more information until the a-ha! moment finally arrives. Sure to make folks scratch their heads and think outside the box, this is the perfect book to pass the time or pep up a party--good clean fun for anytime, anywhere, and anyone!
